Sojourners Magazine. (n.d.). Sojourners. Retrieved December 19, 2021, from https://sojo.net/magazine/current

By using sojo.net you agree to our Privacy Policy OK!

MAGAZINE

SOJOURNERS MAGAZINE: JUNE 2022

SUBSCRIBE TO SOJOURNERS FOR AS LITTLE AS $3.95 PER MONTH!

While some Christians are leading culture-war

skirmishes over sex education in schools, others work for a comprehensive approach that goes beyond silence or shame.

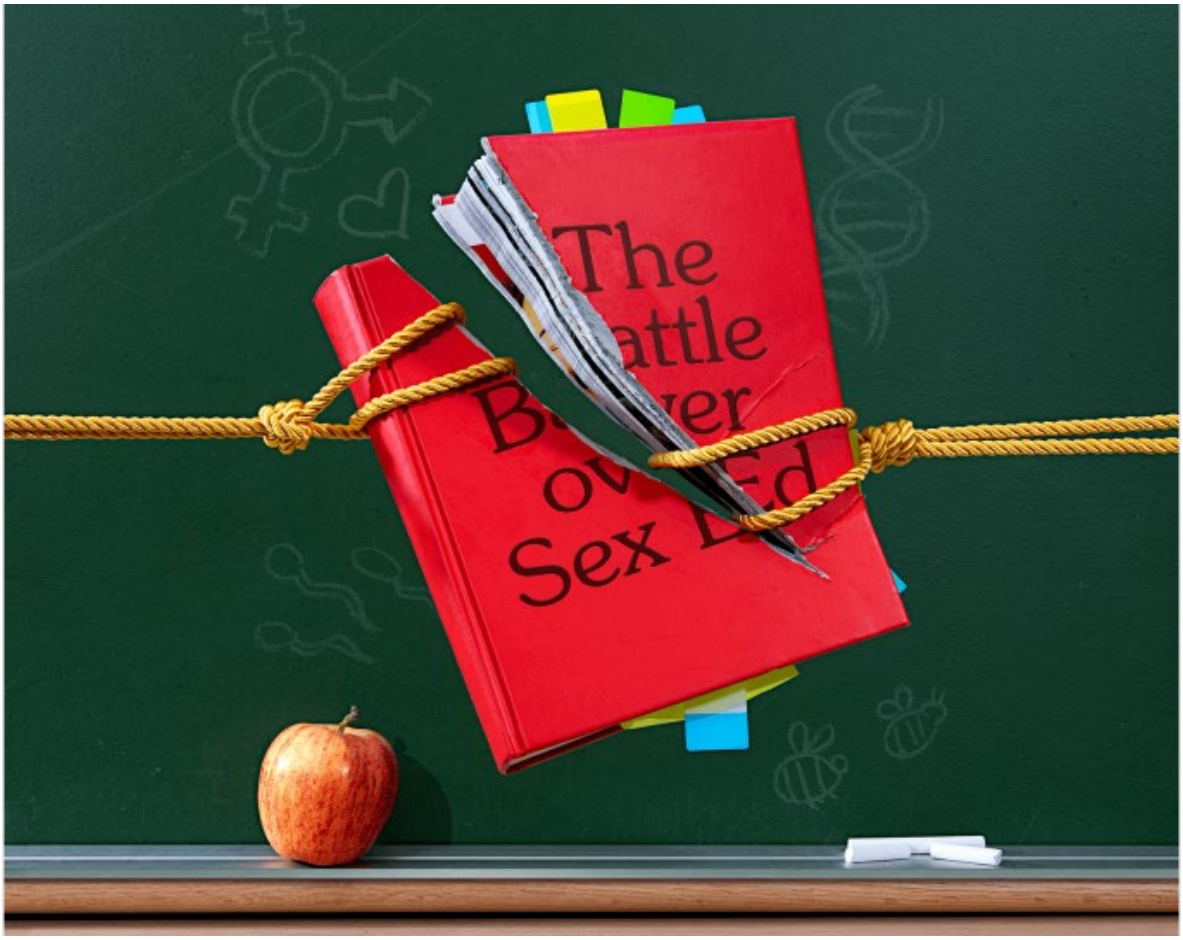

SUBSCRIBE

LOG IN FOR ACCESS

ARCHIVES

WRITE FOR SOJOURNERS

FEATURES

THE BATTLE OVER SEX ED

When sex education becomes a spiritual issue.

by Bekah McNeel

MAGAZINE FEATURES

‘We’ve Got to Stop This Senseless Killing’

On the seventh anniversary of the martyrdom of the Mother Emanuel Nine, we still need to heed the text they were studying that evening.

by James A. Forbes Jr.

Harnessing the Sun to Become Sovereign Again

An Indigenous solar energy project combats fossil fuels and paves the way for a financially vibrant economy.

by Iris M. Crawford

VOICES

VOICES GRAIN OF SALT

We Need to Talk About Military Spending

Moral analysis does not wait for the correct, acceptable, poll-tested moment.

by Jim Rice

VOICES FROM THE EDITOR

From the Editor: June 2022

The Mother Emanuel 9 were studying the parable of the sower on the night of the tragic shooting. Seven years later, we have more to learn from this passage.

by Jim Rice

VOICES CONTRIBUTING

Beyond the Story With Bekah McNeel

"Seeing that change is possible makes me want to keep putting information out."

by Liz Bierly

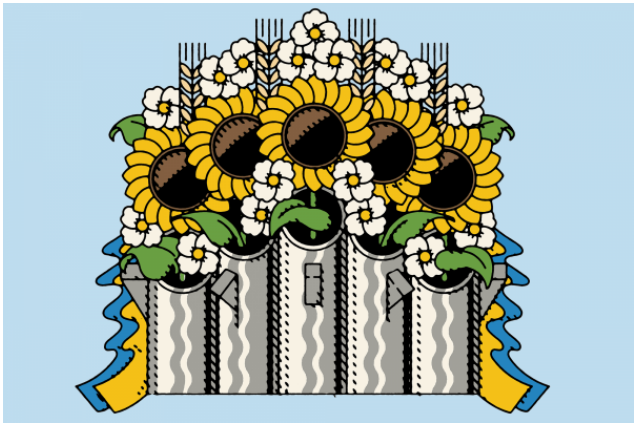

VOICES COMMENTARY

HOW PASTORS ARE TAKING ON CONSPIRACY THEORIES

“We’re not to be the ones spreading fear and division and anger.”

by R. Khari Brown, Ronald E. Brown

IN UKRAINE, CIVIL RESISTANCE IS LED BY UNARMED CIVILIANS

Ordinary people are displaying extraordinary courage using various forms of nonviolent direct action.

by Maria J. Stephan

VOICES COLUMNS

CLIMATE INACTION IS FUELING THE MODERN WAR MACHINE

What is the tragic and hideous war in Ukraine but the result of changes left too long?

by Bill McKibben

DURING WAR, THE LAND WEEPS

Despite all the ways we have neglected and terrorized the land, she still loves us and rises up to care for us.

by Liuan Huska

VOICES EYEWITNESS

Celebrating Juneteenth in Galveston

The birthplace of Juneteenth is making sure the history of the holiday lives on.

by Sharon Batiste Gillins

VISION

VISION CULTURE

The Solar Power of the Dog

Strange bedfellows though they are, there's something compelling about Solar Power and The Power of the Dog sitting side by side.

by Faith-Marie Zamblé

Aline Mello's Poetry Processes Questions About Belonging

She pours into verse her life as an undocumented woman wrestling with race, faith after disillusionment, and the in-between existence of an immigrant.

by Liuan Huska

Embracing the Animal Within

Turning Red's fuzzy transfiguration is a relatable reminder that everyone's lives contain emotional (and sometimes embarrassing) balancing acts.

by Abby Olcese

VISION BOOKS

Andre Henry Helps Us Find the Freedom to Flourish

All the White Friends I Couldn't Keep teaches readers language, strategies, and habits of nonviolent, anti-racist resistance.

by JR. Forasteros

New & Noteworthy: "Essential Labor," Indigenous Resistance, and More

Three culture recommendations from our editors.

by The Editors

'Even in Song, We Become Fluent in the Language of Our Colonizers.'

The new novel Brown Girls explores the ways we return — in flesh, in memory, and in spirit — to the places and people who made us.

by Elinam Agbo

VISION POETRY

Mercy Seat

A poem.

by Devon Balwit

VISION LIVING THE WORD

Carrying the Good News

June reflections on the Revised Common Lectionary, Cycle C.

by T. Denise Anderson

VISION H'RUMPHS

Footprints in the Sand (Unedited)

When I needed you most, why were you snacking on Flamin' Hot Cheetos?

by Jenna Barnett

SUBSCRIBE TO NEWSLETTER

E-Mail

State (if U.S. resident)

Sign Up

SUBSCRIBE

Magazine

Newsletters

Preaching The Word

SOJOURNERS

Donate

Products

Digital Edition

Editorial Policies

Privacy Policy

MEDIA

Advertising

Press

OPPORTUNITIES

Careers

Fellowship Program

CONTACT

Office
408 C St. NE
Washington DC, 20002
Phone 202-328-8842
Fax 202-328-8757
Email
sojourners@sojo.net

UNLESS OTHERWISE NOTED, ALL MATERIAL © SOJOURNERS 2022