Through its seven main sections, it covers diverse aspects of life relevant to our every day lives including home, school, hospital, market, town, world and universe. It ends by a chapter entitled Wealth of Knowledge giving short biographical notes on significant scholars of various faiths embraced by Muslim civilisation and on various related European scholars of the time.

This edition of the book casts new light and insights, it includes many new sources, extensive references and footnotes. The many scholars who reviewed the previous edition helped draw attention to many shortcomings and added so much valuable material to the previous editions.
